

Circular Vision

© Wings of Spirit

The love of God now moves gently with its people. We center ourselves now in the gloried idea of love and allow it to move us into wisdom. Wisdom teaches that long ago, far, far away in time, that which was children, now adults, matured, if you will, through spaces of experiences in time, are gathered in the earth now to proclaim, "I am the will of God and the consciousness therein." These beings of light, to which you are a part or a member, have spent many hours in rivers of generations past, streams, if you will, of consciousness evolving and revolving. Treasures of light speak through those who now await their place to serve here in earth.

Let us begin by understanding that that which is in ideas of "willed consciousness" seek to find a resting place so that the will of God alone can make itself known unto that which is called the Child of Light. This will of God, which is forever now impressing itself for more importance to the conscious mind, is the final key or, if you will, mastery which must be rendered unto full expression in all. Your children shall be the offspring of that which you as adult family member shall teach from this day forward unto those who come after.

This is the will of God, so to speak, as we speak. For in this will now, the will is understood to be the life giver, the life sustainer, and the life creator. We are children of the giver of life. In this way, we become givers of life, and yet, we are still the children of that which is known as "Father". And in this way, you will always be a child. At the same time, you too shall be called "Father" or "giver of life."

Irrespective of your mental understanding of the totality of this eternal truth, you shall be guided by it and blessed by it, and . . . carried forth with members of the same family. We are entertaining ways to help you understand what we call "membership" in the family of God, connected to all, yet frequented in small segments or circles of family members through which you engage the totality of all - all life, all human nature, all life experience, all generations, all experiences of generations.

Lovingly, we send you messages of this wisdom which is important to know - simply because of the unification of the total family unit. How many cousins do you know, children? Not many, and yet they are all part of your family. And each member goes forth and creates life according to that which is impuled from within by the within - connected, if you will, and a part of the experience of every family member you generate and regenerate, create and experience the effects of the whole. You cannot escape the effects of the whole. It is impossible for you to be singled out and separate from thoughts, feelings, actions and activities of the whole family of God. However, you can become an active participant in the collective unification and glorification of the family of God in your individualization. Thus, you affect all, including self.

It is so important to understand this great truth, for herein lies the secret of Humanity's fulfillment - the Divine Destiny and plan which is at work in all energies which call themselves Beings of Light. A "Being of Light" simply is the mind of the God realized in its own sense of self. If you take away the garment clothing each individual's sense of self, there is only self left. The totality of that equals you - not just the sense of you.

Mysteries, mysteries . . . that which seems hidden from the mind. Jesus Christ, He is abiding at the center of every being in the earth that is called a "human being." You are the beloved heart flame core unit of one. You are the complete vortex and equal light vibration of master teacher carried forth from the Central Sun in the beginning. You were sent in many expressions of life, including this one, and here is where you collect that which has gone before to fulfill the prophecy of the I AM OM AUM. Your beloved, which sits before each of you, I AM.

The unified field of positive and negative light completes a unit of light complete in itself having multiplied its energy field through wisdom teachings gained in each experience of life. As others have the same created and experienced, they too have increased that which is called "the life expansion" within that which is called "the life" which is I AM. Together, collectively, taking its unit through its progressions of evolution and the expansion of the light frequency, we have what is called "creation". Creation is a part and an aspect of all Beings of Light. The totality of it is God Almighty I AM. The nature of it is holy. The purity of it is essence. The purpose of it is "glory I AM."

The wisdom forever expands to teach of itself that which it is within itself given in each Being of Light. Master, hmmm, much more. This is a term that your mind can understand. Beyond the master is the Presence which the master seeks to know. And here is where we begin the evolution in the new world to come. Not to be the master, but the Presence I AM. From this point then, we create according to that which is given in the Presence - - not seeking to know, but known; not seeking to find, not seeking to understand, not seeking to believe - - just I AM. As I AM is, then, so shall it be. And that which is to become is experienced, eventually, by that which is even more of itself to begin again and again. Frontiers of consciousness cannot be understood nor even grasped with language of your mentality, so we must stop here, for to take you further would make no sense.

Gravity is the closest idea we can use to help you understand your footage. There is a force that holds you in the earth, as there is a force that holds you on the earth. It is the life-force of generations past, present, and future. That to which your experience is drawn by that which is called "your God I AM within ,ō you design. The force field then is that which controls and enables. If you do not resist the force field, then by its nature it shall keep you in and on the plane of existence which is suited for your evolution.

Wisdom is about understanding that it is wisdom that teaches wisdom, and wisdom gathers with it only that which it is revealing, that which is known - not that which is to be understood, but that which is known. Now, let us be assured that as you seek to have wisdom revealed, it is I, the love of God within you, who seeks to assist Myself in enfolding and unfolding for others and yourselves that which I AM. These teachings raise the vibrational frequency of the mind and, though at times it may seem confusing, stretch Myself or My mind so I may be more contained within Myself remembered or, shall we say, "allowed." Never before have I been able to reveal Myself in such a way, for never before have I had willing hearts and minds ready for equalization or for emancipation. This will of God which you have sought for so long is the key to unlocking and revealing the will, as you understand the will to be the highest element of God contained within that which is I AM YOU ARE.

This gift which is called the "spirit of life within every human being," projects, penetrates. Powerful units now assist each of you - - not just you, but EACH of you, children of light, powerful units, units which can be called equal to "Christ I AM".

Nature. Nature. Nature. Trust this idea, nature. She is a being of great, great magnitude filled with the knowingness of God. Resilient, the epitome of trust and forgiveness. Thus, the soul, within that which you are, seeks and covets that which is nature's experience, for it teaches a greater nature of that which is to be known within the nature of God within you. When you resist my Presence, you resist that which is called "your own nature." This is all that causes pain, and this alone. You never ever, ever, ever, ever see nature resist itself. Watch carefully every aspect of nature. You will not be able to find resistance. It knows not of it. The collective consciousness of humanity has a great gift, and that gift is called "the ability to resist." This is the next level above nature. It is a gift to be given by the giver which you are to the experience of life in creation. For to create new life, you must have the gifted gift of resistance; however, to use it against the nature of who you are is truly a sin. And this resistance is caused by that which you call "willful mind." Yet, the paradox is, without willful mind you would not have the gift of creation, for you must have the power to will.

Herein is a great mystical secret known only by the ages of sages. That which is always the gift is also that which is the sword. And it must be treasured for that life that it can give and destroy, and it must be respected thusly. It is, therefore, imperative to know how to resist nonresistance and to not resist ever the nature of God within you. You must allow the free flow of the life force, and when it flows freely to have you resist, then you use the sword with wisdom.

This great truth will help you understand the great power of the word in its place - - that power to say "yea, yea" or "nay, nay," and a gift of life to give and to withhold. And when it is in the midst of Spirit to be with joy or sadness, to be with sleep or to be with awake, to be with work and/or be with rest, to be with giving or to be receiving, to be holding on or to be letting go, to be sweet or to be powerful in your strength of courage and steadfastness, to be giving in the immaculate conception of truth or to be receiving in innocence.

Our master teacher, Jesus, taught us from the center which has perfect circular vision. When you reach that point of circular vision, you will know when to hold and when to fold. You will know when to speak, when to be silent. You will know when to move, when to stand still. You will know when to stand for what you believe in with strength and voice, and when to be quiet completely in rest and knowing the truth. You will know when to speak the word, and you will know when to hold the word. You will know when to be gentle, when to be strong. Only in circular vision with nonresistance to the force that sees through the eyes that behold will you be able to create that manner in which you as a programmed creator were created to be. You must practice now what you understand to be listening. When you practice listening and allowing that which is heard or impelled to move you through you, you will begin to feel this circular vision impulse you to do or to not do. As you follow that impulse with no resistance, you will understand this teaching. Until then, it is just a perception in the mind, an ideal to be understood in the future. It must become your reality in the present moment so that you can be all that you were created to be and assist the world in moving into the next realm of existence creating a new reality, according to that which IS the circular vision within I AM. We are that - - all of us - - each one.