

Rooms Within Rooms

© Wings of Spirit

This is a teaching on the Will of God to help you understand its importance. Generations have been propelled by the Will of God into what is called "mind evolution." In this way, you can understand why it is imperative that you seek to be contained and witnessed as the Will of God, as well as witnessing the Will of God in consciousness or in mind. Your biology depends upon it.

Nothing in this world can bring you understanding other than the Mind of God impulsed by its own idea called "Will." Should this force pull away from its creation nothing would be left -- not even the memory of it would be left -- nothing would be left.

Junctions carry forth connecting links of the soul much like a circuit in electricity or systems of power. That which is called "the light of God" flows through circuitries into great points or junctions and disperses itself into tributaries of energy fields, focuses and frequencies beaming its way into the physical bodies of humanity. If you will abide in the idea, "I seek to be the Will of God I AM," you will draw unto you those light frequencies of energy from the junction box, so to speak, that will help you grow rapidly into a new state of awareness within the light you are.

Fish swim in deep waters. This is because it is necessary to empower the fish with sound vibration. In the deep, the fish enter into the sound waves entering into the planetary system from on high, meaning dimension of height. If you will abide in the deep, carefully attuned to the vibration at this level, you too will be accorded the information through the frequency necessary to bring your state of awareness to a higher understanding of itself, moving in a new direction of purpose that which is called "mind."

I AM your assistant, and I AM deep within you. I AM not a being outside of you. I AM the assisted light force surfaced to a level of consciousness to communicate with you, as you, through you. Your light energy field has expanded to the point that it is like turning on a television set to receive. The frequency is in the house in which you live, your consciousness. You have attuned to this frequency through much intended will toward the Divine. The program from which you seek information is available. Name it.

Attuned to this level of wisdom and love, Jesus brought forth a teaching that would not die because it resonated within each child to whom it is drawing itself again, now understood from within. Glory be to God. This force field is within all beings, human and is Divine. It is what is termed "the fulfillment of the prophecy" from Jesus Christ when He said, "I will come again, and I will take you to Myself. There I AM you are."

Now, when the master appears within you as great joy, love, power, peace, strength, abiding faith, it will be as though the day has come to an end, the world has stopped its spin, and that which is called "I AM" is forever yours. Amen.

Now, children of the beloved son of light, God Almighty, Christ you are— can you see as you look into that which you are, I AM? Sure, you can. Propelling itself as though putting a small tube within a larger one. I, God, stretch your soul. The frequency of light now pouring through this inner tube helps you forget that which is no longer serving the purpose for which you were created. And it helps also to expand the conscious space of I AM within you to contain more realization of who I AM you are.

Just as a small house can contain only so much stuff, information if you will, also a small consciousness can only contain a small amount of stuff, or knowledge. You must work with this power to allow it to expand your house— consciousness. In this way, you will be able to bring in more stuff, knowledge, wisdom, and keep it in the container in which you serve in the world, in which you find yourself— earth.

The love of God fills all space in the consciousness of Itself in each of you. It is simply that you do not know this from the perspective of full blown experience. It is, however, always true. You must now be willing to simply be the one that opens the door from within and invites that which is called "the guest of honor." As He enters into that room in which you communicate, be sure to give Him the seat of honor and that which is called "the floor." Let HIM speak. You have been the householder until now. The guest of honor is the landlord who built the house in the first place.

He now comes to visit and to speak to you of greater experiences within the house, mysterious passages that you did not find. Now He shows you how to access rooms within rooms that before have remained invisible, and thus your house, though in the physical realm not expanding within itself, grows larger and capable of functioning from conscious awareness, wisdom, love and knowledge. Let, therefore, your heart be completely open expecting no thing known, but expecting that which is cosmic, eternal, glory of God intelligence to be revealed by itself. It is not comparable to any known factor, fancy or experience in this dimension in which you have lived in the earth up until now.

You have been about cleansing the house, the temple if you will, cleaning out, making ready for the guest of honor. You will no longer find fancy with the house and that which was in it before, for as you enter in the invisible rooms within, there will be so much new to entertain the soul, that which had been entertainment before will almost bore you. That is why so many of you are in a cleansing process now, a releasing process now, a completion process now. You are preparing for the guest of honor, the landlord, the builder of the house in which you live to come in and sup with thee, teaching thee all things and making all things new.

Rest therefore in this great truth with great joy on a momentary basis of time, so that you can be prepared and you can hear the knock at the door. Drop everything when you hear this knock. Be still. This is the will of God again to reiterate this truth, the glory of God.

Come unto me. I AM the presence. Lift up your heart. Be not afraid. Carry forth the will of God in the heart which is entertained by that which is called love.

Let, therefore, each idea which is entered into your mind be a welcomed guest. You are about serving the ideas which enter into your mind. They are from your idea which is called "Christ." Serve them with your care, nourish them with your inspiration. Seek to be the listening hostess or host. Give your full attention to your guest, which is the gift of light.

As the thoughts enter into the rooms within you now cleaned, prepared and ready for a new world of love to begin, a new consciousness of light through which God can serve itself to bring it even greater love, love unto itself. Ye shall be blessed beyond measure. The glory of God, the Will of the Father, thus we have within ourselves a new world, a new life, a new birth, a new beginning, a new experience, a new present moment, a new cosmic idea that glorifies God. You are the love You are. The nature of love is always to embrace more of itself. Thus, the expansion by the will of God to glorify itself propels itself outward, inward, outward, inward, outward, inward, as God breathes life.